Dedication

Hard work has always been an essential part of Mary Bennett's teaching-learning theory. A student either worked hard, from which he benefited, or if not he lost and could only blame himself. Anyone who took one of Miss Bennett's courses and put forth some effort, learned and remembered. For the success of her methods, she is respected and admired throughout the school.

Now, as we leave W.H.S., we will remember all the faculty's and administration's attempts at putting up with us and trying their hardest to teach us something. But especially we will remember Miss Bennett's algebra and geometry classes, the theorems, the drawings, and the unsuccessful attempts to get away with anything not related to classroom activity.

To her foremost, as well as all the administration and faculty, we dedicate the 1967 DUKE, and hope her future brings her as much success as has her past.

OUR ALMA MATER
STAUNCH AMONG THE TOWERING TREES
STANDS OUR ALMA MATER FAIR,
DAYS OF PRICELESS WORTH ARE THESE;
NONE IN MEMORY COMPARE,
WITH HEARTS TO DARE, HIGH HOPES TO WIN,
LIFE FOR US MUST SOON BEGIN;
NOT AS SLAVES, BUT GLAD AND FREE,
WELLINGTON, ALL HAIL TO THEE.

The Senior Play, "Our Town," was the dramatic hit of the season. The play followed a young couple, and the small town they lived in, through a few years of the couple's lives.

The first act was the one of the courtship in which the main characters, Emily and George, discover that they are "meant for each other."

The second act took us through the fear, the joy, and the excitement of a wedding experienced, not only by the couple being married, but also by their families and the entire town.

The third act showed the sadness and the cruelty of death as Emily, who has died, returns to see all she has missed and realizes how blind all human beings are to the goings on around them.

The play was a successful effort of a great many members of the senior class, and was enjoyed by all. It was directed by Miss Gratz and student director, Marye Walker.

Class Will

- I, Linda Axford, will to Mrs. Rucker and Mrs. Wilson my little sister, Sherill, who has inherited my tremendous sewing and cooking abilities.
- I, David Barnett, will to Mr. Lutz the memory of the greatest tennis season ever played at Wellington High School. I HOPE!
- I, Dennis Barnes, will my Chemistry and Bookkeeping notebook to anyone with five books!
- I, Carol Brennan, leave my ability to do Bookkeeping to my worst enemy!
- I, Norma Bartish, will all the luck and ability to all the W.H.S. teachers because there are ten more Bartishes to graduate.
- I, Donna Carpenter, will all the fun and work of being Mr. Colman's personal secretary to any lady and all my silly blunders at W.H.S. to my sister, Carol, who is ready for a great start!
- I, Ronda Clawson, will to my brother, Ted, my book Wander Two and hope that he can discover the plot which I can find no where.
- I, Harold Connerly, will my seat in fifth and sixth period art class to anyone who wants to rest two periods a day.
- I, Mark Cooley, will all the troubles we have given Miss Wilson to any future unknown class director and to Miss Wilson--Good Luck.
- I, Tim Cotterli, leave the football players to work and sweat until they're ready to drop and then to be told, "We are going to do it right if it takes all night!"
- I, Sue Crandall, will my Pontiac to Tom Livers and my nickname, "Crat" to my sister, Ann.
- I, Kathy Cammeyer, will the exciting and disastrous experience of being a cheerleader under the leadership of Karleen to any lucky underclassman.
- I, Cathy Fredrick, will to my five brothers all the joy, anxiety, trouble and happiness I have received from my four years at Wellington High, also all my gratitude and gratitude to the teachers at W.H.S.
- I, Jim Dobney, will all the extra work and little jobs given to me by Mr. Stoker to next year's captain, Gene Lloyd, and my ability to stay out until all hours of the night without getting into any trouble to Walter Towkatsch.
- I, Tom Doty, will myself to any girl who is smart enough to get me, also I leave to anyone brave enough; my Summer Blonde, peroxide and rubber gloves
- I, Rod Eaton, leave to Mr. Shellhouse, my thirty-year accumulation of used tape and hope that it will save the Athletic Department some money.
- I, Chuck Engh, will to Mr. Tussing my 11 and 11 period down in his office. And to Wellington I give thee CLEO!!!
- I, Larry Farnsworth, will all the broken bats in the history of W.H.S. to Mr. Shellhouse.
- I, David Gariss, will to nobody my will because my will has nothing to will. Second to last, I will all my English books to my sister, Leah, so that she won't have to buy them, provided she can use them.
- I, Arthur Calkery will to the Wellington F.F.A. a new Agricultural Shop, and to Wellington a new high school.
- I, Gary Glaze, leave to anyone, the ability to talk their way out of trouble the way I have been able to.
- I, Mike Goodwin, will to all the underclassman, the fun of parking in the mac along the playground.
- I, Bill Goodwin, will Friday and Saturday nights to anyone who likes to have fun.
- I, David Greene, will to Mr. R. Jones twenty three rabbits, cages, Mr. Starnard, a large bottle of aspirin (especially if he ever gets a student like me), and to Mr. Fort, the peace and tranquillity that he will attain when I go.
- I, Pat Greene, will to Mary Greene and Pat Goodwin, luck in getting in the bank tomorrow for two more long years! Good Luck.

- I, Patti Hamer, will to my brother, Bill, the good times that I have had in high school. And to Mrs. Gannett, all the diamond rings, over blouses, and tent dresses of Wellington High School!
- I, Janet Hansen, will to all the underclassman, this poor condemned building in hope that some-day the people of this town will wake up and build a new one.
- I, Judy Hanson, will to anyone who needs it, my ability to talk.
- I, Wayne Harrison, being of sound mind and body, leaving nothing, but take 4 football jerseys, 1 windbreaker, and a baseball jersey.
- I, Kathy Hazlett, will to Mr. and Mrs. Gordin my so well-be-ave (?) twin brothers, Mike and Scott. And to my brother, Jim, all the luck he can get his hands on to get through his highly (?) educational school!
- I, Linda Hazlett, will to Mr. Stoker my twin brothers. It looks as if it's the only way we'll ever get any boys!
- I,icken Heatwole, leave to any un-lucky junior, my seat in Mr. Lort's civis and social studies class.
- I, Sally Henry, will to any girl with enough nerve: a broken leg and a strong, "muscle-headed" boy to carry her up and down the stairs.
- I, Pat Henderson, so fetchy will Wellington High School to Keystone High School in hope that they will better it.
- I, Gary Hough, will my chair to Stanley White, because I'm sure he can use it. I would also like to will my seat to Mr. Seelhouse, AT THE SAME TIME. In September, I also will myself to the UNITED STATES AIR FORCE.
- I, Nancy Hunt, will to my sister, Linda, all the fun I've had working in the Main Office.
- I, Bruce Ives, will my ability that's all, just my ability to any underclassman who wants it.
- I, Clark Jensen, will to any underclassman, the ability to wear pink pants, an orchid sweater, and a maroon shirt and get away with it.
- I, Jim Kear, will Wellington High School to all the unfortunate youths who will have the great misfortune of having to inhabit its crumbling halls.
- I, David Kibben, will to my sister, Sharon, the chance to be in the Senior Class Play and have as much fun as I did.
- I, Gary Kurtz, will Sniff a nose warmer and a bottle of Heads-Up.
- I, Charles Lacey, will my seat to the cheerleaders to cheer for the football team in hope that the cheerleaders have fun stepping on them.
- I, Stephanie Lasky, will to my brother, Andrew Lasky, the pleasure of going to W.H.S. and the many friends I've acquired.
- I, Gary Lay Lathier, will my distinctive "Boog" to the first person to catch a touchdown pass in "67."
- I, Sally Lewrey, leave my brother and sister a complete set of English books, and will my seat in Algebra to anyone who wants it.
- I, Carol MacLam, leave to Mr. Seelhouse, my faith in humanity (also in unblocked fire exit) and to the faculty, my little sister, Sue, who has more nerve than I do (imagine!).
- I, Sue McClurg, leave my ability to get "unexcused" excused absences from Mrs. Gannett to anyone needing them.
- I, Margaret McKinney, will to my brothers, Mike and Dean, the good times they will find in their future years, and hope that they won't have to learn everything the hard way, as I did.
- I, Steve Magyar, will my drawing set to Fred Cassel. I also leave the food at W.H.S. to Doug Coleman.
- I, Deborah Martin, will to any unfortunate underclassman, the ability to change the color of their hair as many times as they like with no interposing side effects.
- I, Pat Masse, will to my brothers and sister, the privilege to sit in American History Class and eat candy and drink pop without getting caught. Good luck!
- I, Rick Maybaugh, being of unsound mind and body, leave the Great Wellington High School, after my somewhat 13 years of it.

- I, Nancy Mills, leave this school to anyone who can stand it.
- I, Kathy Murray, will to all W.H.S. teachers lots of luck and patience because they will have three more Murray's at the same time.
- I, Chris Myers, will to any underclass cheerleader the ability to lose her cheerleading outfit the day before her first game.
- I, Thomas Napier, will to Ken Handley my excessive talent and basketball ability and leave to any undeserving junior the right to be friendly with freshman girls without being persecuted by other seniors.
- I, Dave Nell, will to Fred Cassell the number one position on the tennis team.
- I, Dale Norton, will my place on the football team's bench to my brother, Chuck.
- I, Robert Parks, will my knowledge to the school laws and rules to Mr. Coleman.
- I, Linda Phillips, will all of the luck and happiness possible to all my great friends who are underclassmen.
- I, Doug Reed, will to my unfortunate underclassman, who's first name is Doug, the misfortune of having it misspelled for twelve years; the correct spelling is "D-U-G!"
- I, Judy Ross, leave to my sister, Patsy, my ability to get on the nerve road without really trying, and getting my name in black print in the Enterprise.
- I, Little Sanders, being of consanguine mind, if not body, do hereby prove it by leaving all my worldly possessions to Jerry Heidenreich.
- I, Sandy Saxe, leave my soul, that I believe had to anyone who really thinks that those who have more fun and to Dave Stemple, I leave all my acquaintances in Elysia.
- I, Thomas Seckley, leave to Mr. Fort, a look of my suit, I give will Mr. Shellhouse a hunting jacket, so that he may wear it with his hunting shirts.
- I, John Slaughter, will my purple tennis shoes to Mr. Coleman, since he admires them so much. And to my former teacher, Mrs. Slaughter, I leave my "creators," which are a sure way to pass English.
- I, Susan Simmons, will to Linda Welch, my position as Washington High's representative on Berkeley's Fashion Board in the hope that she will be a really busy girl. And to Mr. Cassell, I leave my gold mini skirt.
- I, Bob Smith, will all the Ferrys, Stans, Tarecs, Webers, Newtons, Joneses, etc., coconuts, and dynes to any junior who is taking physics and can keep them straight.
- I, Bonnie Smithee, will my part-time seat at Mr. Coleman's desk to my brother, Frank.
- I, Jack Sorath, being of sound mind, will my money, song, and other position as "King" to Jim M. and to my six little sisters, all the good times at W.H.S.
- I, Nancy Stewart, will my little cousin, Natty, and car, to our favorite ("") band director, Mr. Tussing. Good luck. And also, my back seat in my room to any deserving underclassman.
- I, Judy Storack, will my ability to talk and laugh in Social Studies and not get caught.
- I, D. S. (David Styer) will to all forth coming seniors the hall, rooms, and grounds of this school. I particularly will my name, D. S. to anyone who has enough intestinal fortitude to dare let himself be called D. S.
- I, Lora Thornton, leave all my nicknames such as Strapp, Pook, and many, to anyone who is as short as I.
- I, Nettie Vance, will to my brother, Kenny, the ability to get along with the teachers that I couldn't get along with at all.
- I, Cecilia Varner will this school to Abbie, Mary, Kim, Karla, Andrea, John, and Tracy Varner in hopes that it will still be standing by the time Tracy graduates (1981).
- I, James Wacker, will to Bob, Don, and Clint Wacker all of my football equipment and hope they enjoy it as much as I did.
- I, John Wacker, will all of my basketball ability to my brother, Bob, and to my girl's brother, Dave.
- I, Marie Wacker, leave to the "leftover" of the next class, Mr. Zajdel, Mr. Tussing, and all their cheer, to Mr. Shellhouse the knowledge that I'm no longer a life teacher, and to Mrs. Stannard, my undying devotion.

I, Dan Watson, will to Mr. Zaidel and Mr. Tussing another great summer like ours and to the underclassmen I will Mr. Zaidel and Mr. Tussing.

I, Bonnie Watters, will my place in typing class to anyone who thinks they can keep up with Mrs. Gannett.

I, Ed Weidman, will to W.H.S. all the knowledge I have gained in the past four years, which will be written on the back of a postage stamp.

I, Brenda Williams, will to my brother Dave, my ability to be in all the wrong places at the right time, the right places at the wrong time, and never get caught. Have fun Dave.

I, Vicki Williams, will to Marlene Floyd the best of luck in her remaining years at W.H.S.

I, Jerry Wilson, will the thought that I did make it through high school to anyone who would like to give it a try.

I, Winona Wosicki, will the ability to get a new mimeograph to Mrs. Gannett, and good luck to the underclassmen.

I, Donna Wrenn, will to any girl the fun and enjoyment of working the switchboard in the main office for three years.

I, Patti Young, will to my sister, Marta, my contact lens, my old saddle shoes, my autographed basketball, my job at the "store," and my infectious giggle.

Homecoming 1966

Lola Thornton was crowned 1966-67 Homecoming Queen. Her court consisted of Donna Carpenter, Cecilia Varner, and Patti Young. Queen Lola was crowned by last year's queen, Barbara Düniger, before the game between Wellington and Vermillion. At the Homecoming dance, Lola was presented with a dozen red roses by Janet Hansen, President of G.A.A.

ACTIVITIES

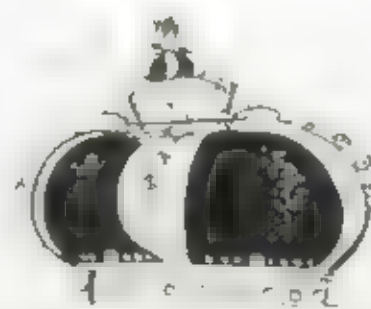

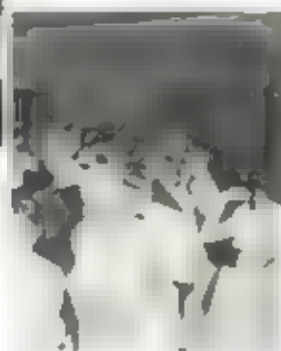

Prom 1967

LOLA JEAN THORNTON

WAYNE ALLEN HARRISON

Prom 1967 was held May 13 at the Medina Holiday Inn. A buffet supper and music by the Premiers who were from Cleveland highlighted the evening. At 2 a.m. the senior class was entertained at a post prom, which was held at Westwood school. This enchanting and adventurous evening was sponsored by the junior class.

Here they come.

Concert

The concert was a great success. The students performed beautifully and the audience enjoyed every moment. The concert was held in the school auditorium and was attended by many guests. The students were very proud of their performance and the audience was very appreciative. The concert was a great way for the students to show their talent and for the community to enjoy their music.

FIRST TABLE: Ferguson, N., Friedrich, C., Newton, C., Warner, M., Tate, F., Indiana, C.; SECOND TABLE: Simon, R.; Napier, I., Loty, I., Green, T., Casell, F., Newberger, R., Mr. Dorf, Adviser.

Beginning in September, the WHS Quiz Bee, under the supervision of Mr. Dorf, has been preparing for April's Lakeland Conference Quiz Bee meet.

Preparation for this event includes the study of current happenings in sports, the fine arts, the nation literature, and the world. Our team competes with those of other schools in informal scrimmages.

For the first time, the WHS team participated in a northern Ohio high school Quiz Bee contest. With a team of three, Wellington secured fifth place honors.

"The Night of January 16th", presented by the Junior Class, was a comedy-drama in three acts. Karen Andre was accused of murdering her boss, the backbone of a huge financial system and the husband of pretty Nancy Lee Faulkner. The plot thickens as Karen's gangster boyfriend enters and accuses Nancy's father of the murder. The jury, selected from the audience, found Miss Andre "not guilty."
